Business Transformation Enabled by Digital
CIO Alliances – 13 March 2019

We are in the POST Digital age....

Even the government is waking up....

“ We will soon establish a digital industrial revolution commission, which will include the private sector and civil society, to ensure that our country is in a position to seize the opportunities and manage the challenges of rapid advances in information and communication technology.”

President Cyril Ramaphosa
SONA 2018
